Please consider preserving these important regulations, which keep these monopolists in line. All independent ISP's must work with ILEC's to secure access to the InterNet. Allowing ILECs to refuse connectivity to independent ISPS will have an extremely detrimental effect on the industry.